UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT.

Orders Sale of Kentucky and Indiana Telephone and Telegraph Company

United States Circuit Court, Western District of Kentucky, at Louisville, J. D. Powers, Receiver, Complainant, vs. Kentucky & Indiana Telephone & Telegraph company, et al, Defendants.

Pursuant to the requirements of a final decree, entered in the above entitled cause on January, 7, 1910, the undersigned as Special Master, appointed by said decree, will on the 2nd day of March 1910, at the hour of 11 o'clock a. m., at the front door of the court house of Daviess county in the city of Owensboro, Ky., sell as a whole at public auction, to the highest bidder, all of the properties, rights, privileges, franchise and immunities of every character and description whether real, personal or mixed, whether in possession or in action and wheresoever situated, of the Kentucky & Indiana Telephone & Telegraph company, including the following to wit:

The telephone exchange and all poles, wires, conduits and other appliances constituting the telephone system of said Kentucky & Indiana Telephone & Telegraph company in the city of Owensboro, Kentucky, and the franchise granted to said company by the city of Owensboro. Also a telephone line running on beyond the city limits of Owensboro on the West Main street and River roads for a distance of about four miles.

Also a telephone pole line from Owensboro to the city limits of Henderson, a distance of 32 3/4 miles, on which, in addition to the Henderson line, is a line, 14 miles long to Cardsville, Kentucky.

Also a telephone line running four and a half miles beyond the limits of the city of Owensboro on the Leitchfield road.

Also 50 shares of stock in the Rural Home Telephone company, consisting partly of preferred and partly of common stock.

The said sale will include and will pass to the purchaser everything of value belonging to the Kentucky & Indiana Telephone & Telegraph company, including all accounts owing to, but not collected by, the receiver, at the time of his transfer to the purchaser. But any surplus cash then in the receivers hands, over and above the amount necessary to pay all of his liabilities, shall be subject to the right of the court to determine as to the disposition thereof.

In the event the funds in the hands of the receiver, at the time such transfer, shall not be sufficient to pay and satisfy all of the liabilities incurred by the receiver, the purchaser shall assume and pay, or otherwise satisfy, said liabilities as part of his purchase price; and such excess liability may, by order of the court herein, be charged and fixed as a lien on the premises in the hands of the purchaser

Everything ordered to be sold will be as an entirety. No bid will be received from any one who shall not first deposit with the undersigned as special master, as a pledge that the bidder will make good his bid in case of its acceptance, $50,000 in money, or certified check or certificate of deposit for that amount. The amount of cash, certified check or certificates of deposit so deposited by any unsuccessful bidders, will be returned to him, or them, when the property is struck off.

In case a bid shall be accepted and the sale confirmed by the court, and the successful bidder shall comply with the terms thereof, the sum deposited by him at the time of sale shall be credited as a part payment of the purchase price.

In the event any bidder whose bid has been accepted shall fail to comply with any order of the court in regard to the payment of the purchase price, the cash deposited by him shall be retained as liquidated damages and shall be applied to wards the expense of any re-sale which may be ordered, or towards making good, any deficiency, or loss in case the property at a re-sale shall bring less than at the former sale. But if a bid be accepted and sale thus made by the special master, and the court shall refuse to confirm the same, then the deposit made by the bidder shall be returned to him.

The balance of the purchase money exclusive of the deposit required as aforesaid, may be paid in cash, or the purchaser may satisfy and make good said balance in whole or in part by surrendering outstanding bonds and overdue coupons attached to, or cut from, said bonds of the Kentucky & Indiana Telephone & Telegraph company in the manner provided in said decree.

The purchaser will be required to pay the balance of his purchase price within thirty days after the entry of an order requiring such payment, and the court to reserve the right to re-sell said property in case of his failure so to do.

Reference is hereby made to the decree in the above entitled cause for greater certainty.

J. D. POWERS,
Special Master.

HON. MARION F. POGUE'S REGULAR LETTER

He Says That While There is Not Much Doing Now, Something WILL be Pretty Soon.

His High Tribute to Gov. Goebel.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 7, 1910
Dear Record-Press:-

This has been an eventful week in the capital city. While much has not been accomplished in the line of law making time has been killed in the most barbaic fashion.

The House has listened to such notables as Dr. McCormack, Gov. Willson and ex-senator McCrary.

Dr. McCormack made a great talk on public health. It was comprehensive and practical. He told the members the value of good health, how to be healthy and their duty to provide for the preservation of the public health, especially the stamping out of tuberculosis and typhoid fever. He is one of the greatest men of the times, brainy, big hearted and having the courage of his conviction, devoting his life to the healing of the nation, his voice having been heard in every state in the Union and most every capital in Europe in the crusade against disease and untimely death.

Gov. Willson sent in another lengthy message Tuesday. He asked for $400,000 to complete the new capital. It was news to most of the members as we thought it was already complete, but we are told that about $150,000 must yet be paid for pictures, and panels to be painted on the walls. But it took our committee on State capital only a few moments to scale the Governors half million request down to $50,000 to finish the grading of the grounds and the distribution of water about the grounds. Pictures and bond issue don't sound well in the same paragraph.

The funeral of Arthur Goebel and the unveiling of the statue of William Goebel brought many people to the capital. The weather being inclement, the exercises at the cemetery were brief, the floral offerings were profuse.

The statue is of bronze being a good likeness of the dead governor. It surmounts a beautiful granite pedestal standing upon the hill overlooking the city where he was wont to stand in life and gaze upon the city he had learned to love. The people of Frankfort and Franklin county still love the memory of Wm. Goebel. They knew him well, they saw him day after day, month after month and year after year as he battled for their rights in the old State house. They saw him fall at its very portals, his life ebbing forth in a crimson stream, a sacrifice for a duty so nobly done, they saw him carried to his grave on the hill and laid to rest, to sleep as the martyr sleeps. After ten years of trust and corporate greed running riot in and about the very House and Senate chambers of our State capital and the lobbyists growing more desperate every session in their effort to bind and gag the masses, the life work of Wm. Goebel stands out in bold relief on the horizon of Kentucky's fast decaying statesmanship.

We need more men of ability and courage who will not sell their honor for a mess of pottage, and if need be die for the right. Mr. Goebel had his faults and ambitions, it is true, but if our Legislature only had a few Goebels among them, the filibustering would stop, the atmosphere clear up and lobbyists would break for tall timber at once, and soon the common people could tell where they come in.

The memorial exercises were held at the Opera House and Senator McCrary in an eloquent address paid beautiful tribute to the memory of Mr. Goebel.

Justus Goebel followed in a short but vigorous address in which he thanked the thousand Kentuckians for the kindness in erecting the monument to his brother. He then in the bitterest terms arraigned the slayers of his brother, and the Governor for the pardon of those charged with the crime.

The different committees are visiting the institutions of the state this week which leave us with barely a quorum, but next week we will begin with two or three sessions per day, and things will begin to hum, unless the county unit Bill gets cross wise in the hopper again and chokes the mill. It came up last week in the senate and was given another hypodermic from which it will slumber until we send the Waggoner Bill over from the House to engage their attention. For particulars see Senate Journal.

Both houses have passed the resolution asking for adoption of the Income Tax feature to be known as the sixteenth amendment to constitution of the United States.

CRITLEDEN RECORD-PRESS.

N. E. CALMES, Editor and Publisher.

Entered as second-class matter February 9th, 1907 at the post-office at Marion, Kentucky, under the act of Congress, of March 3rd 1879.

We feel that it is incumbent upon Senator J. R. Catlett of this district to explain to his constituency his reason for change of front on the County Unit Bill. He has on different occasions voted to send it to an unfriendly committee. A committee at whose hands it can expect nothing but strangulation.

Can it be possible that a senator representing a constituency as intelligent and patriotic as any other in the State, would so soon forget his pledge to the people and his party? Would he prove faithless to Mr. Pogue and others whom he told to announce that he would stand by the temperance people and support the county unit bill?

Can it be that a man in full possession of his faculties would sign a pledge on the 26th of last October and before three months rolled by repudiate it?

PLEDGE BY SENATOR CATLETT WHEN SEEKING ELECTION

Princeton, Ky., Oct. 26, 1909.
Rev. T. S. Buckingham:
Anti-Saloon League, Louisville, Ky.

Dear Sir:—In reference to the question as to my attitude toward the County Unit Bill, I elected to the next General Assembly from the Fourth Senatorial District.

In answer I will say, that if elected from this Senatorial District I shall vote and work for the measure and do my utmost to get it passed into a law.

Respectfully Yours,

J. R. CATLETT.

Will the Honorable Joshua tell if he calls his action in the Senate "working for its passage?" If so, deliver us from such assistance.

Will he tell us why, that almost at the same time that Marion Pogue, Bob Aikin and Forest Porter were representing the people of Crittenden Caldwell and Webster counties in the House by voting on every roll call to advance the county unit bill, you, a senator, representing the same people and honor bound by the above pledge, was voting in the senate to destroy the same measure?

When Senator Watkins read your pledge to the senate and made some ugly insinuations, why did you not rise in your place and explain, instead of sitting in your seat dumb as an oyster?

Dear Senator! I hope that you can give a satisfactory explanation and yet right yourself before the people—yes temperance people who on the strength of your pledge voted for you regardless.

If the people are misunderstanding you, explain, so that their humiliation will pass away.

Explain, Senator, Explain, Explain.

We call special attention to the page ad this week of the Sturgis Dry Goods Company at Sturgis. They are great advertisers and as is their yearly custom, they are putting on their spring "White Sale" that has always drawn tremendous crowds to Sturgis. This sale commences February 11 and closes February 22, Washington's birthday and also the day the fine Piano is to be given away. This piano is a high price, fine toned instrument that the purchase of but a dollar may secure for you. For every dollar you spend with them entitles you to a chance. A trip to see them will be worth more to you than a trip to Evansville and besides it is keeping your money at home. And then you will see that in various instances their goods are ten per cent below selling price and in many instances articles, they do not want to carry over, the prices are cut half. This well known firm have always made good what they say and every sale drawing greater crowds every year. In other words the big White Sale put on by the Sturgis Dry Goods Co. are favorably commented on from the time they are gone until they come again. By all who have ever attended them they are looked forward to with pleasure. You will miss some splendid bargains and a chance of winning a beautiful piano if you miss this big event from February 11 to February 22.

The fact that A. O. Stanley had two opponents—men held in high esteem by the people of the Second District, made his the greatest victory in congressional history in the State.

We are compelled to offer an apology to our contributors and correspondents this week for not being able to publish many of them due to the sickness of our valued foreman, Cleveland Stone. The remaining force have worked hard every day and most of each night to handle all the matter, but it could not be done. It is seldom the case that you see page ads from out of the county merchants. But you see we have one and likely to have others. To those having left orders for envelopes and paper we ask that you bear with us until our foreman gets well when we can then soon catch up.

TRY THIS

Two Minutes Cure For Cold In Head or Chest.

IT IS CURING THOUSANDS DAILY, AND SAVES TIME AND MONEY.

Get a bowl three quarters full of boiling water, and a towel. Pour into the water a teaspoonful of Hyomie (pronounced High-o-me). Put your head over the bowl and cover both head and bowl with towel. Breathe the vapor that rises for two minutes, and presto! your head is as clear as a bell, and the tightness in the chest is gone. Nothing like it to break up a heavy cold, cure sore throat or drive away a cough. It's a pleasant cure. You'll enjoy breathing Hyomie. You'll feel at once its soothing, healing and beneficial effects as it passes over the inflamed and irritated membrane. Try it. Haynes & Taylor sells Hyomie.

A COUGH.

Is a danger signal and should not be neglected. Take Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey at once. It allays inflammation stops the cough and heals the membrane.

MA'S NEW HUSBAND.

Do you want to see the funniest lesson ever given a boy by his teacher? Do you want to see the most old-fashioned and cunning boy that ever took a lesson from a teacher? Then do not fail to see the performance of "Ma's New Husband" at the Opera House on Thursday night, Feb. 10th, the only chance that will be offered to see it in this city. At first sight these questions may seem irrelevant, but when you are let into the secret that the boy in question is really a full grown man in boy's clothes, you will begin to see the humorous side of the scene. The bout between these two are brimful of mirth and they form only a small portion of the ludicrous happenings that occur during the performance of this entertaining musical farce. Other cities highly praise the members of the company provided by the Harry Scott Company in the various characters. Seat sale will open at morning.

Pain in Heart

"For two years I had pain in my heart, back and left side. Could not draw a deep breath or lie on left side, and any little exertion would cause palpitation. Under advice I took Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy and Nerve. I took about thirteen bottles, am in better health than I ever was, and have gained 14 pounds."

MRS. LILLIE THOMAS,
Upper Sandusky, Ohio.

For many years Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy has been very successful in the treatment of heart troubles, because of its tonic effect upon the heart nerves and muscles. Even in severe cases of long standing it has frequently prolonged life for many years after doctors had given up all hope, as proven by thousands of letters we have received from grateful people.

Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy is sold by all druggists. If the first bottle fails to benefit, your druggist will return your money.

KITTIE JACOBS.

An aching back is instantly relieved by an application of Sloan's Liniment.

This liniment takes the place of massage and is better than sticky plasters. It penetrates—without rubbing—through the skin and muscular tissue right to the bone, quickens the blood, relieves congestion and gives permanent as well as temporary relief.

Here's the Proof.

Mr. JAMES C. LEE, of 1100 9th St., S.E., Washington, D.C., writes: "Thirty years ago I fell from a scaffold and seriously injured my back. I suffered terribly at times; from the small of my back all around my stomach was just as if I had been beaten with a club. I used every plaster I could get with no relief. Sloan's Liniment took the pain right out, and I can now do as much ladder work as any man in the shop, thanks to

Sloan's Liniment

Mr. J. P. EVANS, of Mt. Airy, Ga., says: "After being afflicted for three years with rheumatism, I used Sloan's Liniment, and was cured sound and well, and am glad to say I haven't been troubled with rheumatism since. My leg was badly swollen from my hip to my knee. One-half a bottle took the pain and swelling out."

Sloan's Liniment has no equal as a remedy for Rheumatism, Neuralgia or any pain or stiffness in the muscles or joints. Prices, 25c., 50c. and $1.00.

Sloan's book on horses, cattle, sheep, and poultry sent free. Address Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass., U.S.A.

Free Child's Remedy

What mother is not looking for something that will help her children in the little ills of life, something for the stomach trouble and the bowel trouble? Long ago she probably has become convinced that a child cannot readily swallow a pill or a tablet, and that to "break them in half and crush them" is an annoyance; that usually they work too drastically, and are nauseating and too powerful for the little one's stomach.

Any mother who will take the trouble of sending her name and address can obtain a free sample bottle of a remedy that thousands of other mothers are using and now paying for. This remedy is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and the offer of a free trial bottle is open to any mother who has not yet used it. Having used it and convinced yourself that it is what you want, you can obtain it in the future of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, just as so many others are doing. The free sample being simply to convince you of its merits. It is the best way to begin on it. Mrs. L. Davis of 187 W. Harrison street, Chicago, and Mrs. Mary Belford, 1710 Coke street, Louisville, Ky., both started with a free sample and now they write that they have never been without a bottle in the house since.

It is undoubtedly a great family remedy, as it is adapted to all ages, being mild and pleasant to take and yet thoroughly effective. It is especially the ideal remedy for children and women and old folks, who need something pure, mild and natural. It has the advantage of being a thorough laxative and yet contains no such complaints with a guarantee that it will cure. Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. I explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R. 590 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and gives health and strength to the whole body.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.

Better Not Get Dyspepsia

If you can help it. Kodol prevents Dyspepsia, by effectually helping Nature to Relieve Indigestion. But don't trifle with Indigestion.

A great many people who have trifled with indigestion, have been sorry for it—when nervous or chronic dyspepsia resulted, and they have not been able to cure it. Use Kodol and prevent having Dyspepsia.

Everyone is subject to indigestion. Stomach derangement follows stomach abuse, just as naturally and just as surely as a sound and healthy stomach results upon the taking of Kodol.

When you experience sourness of stomach, belching of gas and nauseating fluid, bloated sensation, gnawing pain in the pit of the stomach, heart burn (so-called), diarrhoea, headaches, dullness or chronic tired feeling—you need Kodol. And then the quicker you take Kodol—the better. Eat what you want, let Kodol digest it.

Ordinary peptic "dyspepsia tablets," physics, etc., are not likely to be of much benefit to you, in digestive ailments. Pepsin is only a partial digester—and physics are not digesters at all. Kodol is a perfect digester. If you could see Kodol digesting every particle of food, of all kinds, in the glass test-tubes in our laboratories, you would know this just as well as we do.

Nature and Kodol will always cure a sick stomach—but in order to be cured, the stomach must rest. That is what Kodol does—rests the stomach, while the stomach gets well. Just as simple as A, B, C.

reason." He paused significantly. Judith lowered her eyes from his. "I forgive him any annoyance he may have caused me, and I hope you will forgive him too. I want you and Wheeler to be friends again and, like the princess in the fairy stories, live happily ever after." He patted her fondly on the shoulder.

Mrs. Nolan entered the room and, aglow with excitement, greeted her guests.

"Judge Bartelmy, I hope you haven't been waiting long?" she inquired anxiously.

"Not at all."

"It is so good of you to come."

"Oh, I wouldn't permit anything to keep me away," he replied. "I've just had the pleasure of adjourning a rather important conference to be here."

This confession filled the fluttering heart of Mrs. Nolan with pure ecstasy. She could barely contain herself as she in turn greeted Judith Bartelmy.

Pitcher announced another name that appeared in the social register.

"Mr. Dupuy," he announced. He had come to keep his appointment with Nolan.

"How do you do, Mr. Dupuy?" greeted the hostess, shaking hands warmly with him. "Here's Judge Bartelmy. He's just adjourned a most important conference to come to our tea. Pitcher, tell Mr. Nolan the judge and Mr. Dupuy are waiting. Say the judge has just adjourned his court to come. Miss Bartelmy, Phyllis will be so delighted to see you." She grasped Judith's arm and led her to a door, speaking rapidly as she did so. "Phyllis wants to show you her new gown Quinlan brought over from Paris. Very smart effect, but $450, and you could hold it in the palm of your two hands—a rag!"

"An amusing character, our hostess," commented Bartelmy dryly to Dupuy.

"Yes; she seems very appreciative of your daughter's visit."

"Well," decisively, "she certainly ought to be."

"I suppose we shall see it in the Advance tomorrow," suggested Dupuy.

"Oh, of course!" Bartelmy laughed amiably.

"By the way," remarked Dupuy, "did you see the evening papers?"

A serious look came into Bartelmy's face as he said:

"I glanced over them on my way up-town, and their accounts of my decision this morning are not at all objectionable."

"No blood drawn," said Dupuy reassuringly. "A little surprising, too, for the Lansing Iron people have been in pretty bad odor with the public ever since the receivership matter last year."

"That was the beginning of all these attacks upon me. I hope the morning papers will treat me fairly."

"Oh, there will be no trouble about them. They have not investigated the matter thoroughly enough yet, of course, excepting the Advance. But you did just the right thing today to bring Miss Judith."

Bartelmy was showing not the slightest hesitancy at using his beautiful and accomplished daughter as a decoy in his plottings. In the first place, he desired that she should marry Wheeler Brand, hoping that the young reformer's zeal against him would disappear; secondly, by prevailing on her to pay attention socially to the Nolan family he was confident that the owner of the Advance would capitulate and become his friend. As for Judith, she little comprehended the entire significance of her father's attitude, and if she had, her frank, genuine nature, which revolted at trickery and deceit, would not have permitted her to continue to do his bidding. She admired and loved her father.

She knew that her mother before her had aided her father in his work and ambitions to a considerable extent, and now that her mother was no longer alive she felt it her duty to fill her place in every possible way. After all, she had only a young woman's knowledge of the ways of men in the business and professional world, and she could discern in the attacks on her father nothing beyond what he himself had taught her to believe—that they were the efforts of envious men or ignorant reformers or misguided fanatics, who assailed him entirely without just cause. However, it would seem that the judge would in any event have attempted to conceal from others his motives for procuring the presence of Judith at the Nolan home on this day. It would seem, no matter how low he had sunk, that he would have denied that he had ever employed her unsuspectingly as a decoy on other occasions. That was the least this father could do for his daughter. But he made no attempt to protect her reputation at any rate to Dupuy, for in answer to the lawyer lobbyist's remark that he had done "just the right thing to bring Miss Judith today" he replied with his characteristic coolness:

"Oh, in matters of this kind my daughter is of the greatest help to me!" After a moment he continued, "I don't at all like your idea, Dupuy, of my proposing this man Nolan at the club."

"That's our trump card," insisted the other. "Every man has his price—even this young Brand if we could only find out what it is."

CHAPTER VII

BRAND and Nolan came out of the library after their smoke and were surprised to find Judge Bartelmy and Dupuy in the drawing room. Brand did not appear enthusiastic at the circumstance, and nodding stiffly in the general direction of the two men, proceeded to circle around them toward the door leading to the hall.

Judge Bartelmy advanced pleasantly toward the newspaper owner, who greeted him courteously.

"Judge, this is an unexpected honor."

"An honor to come—believe me, Mr. Nolan, an honor to come."

Nolan saw Brand's dexterous maneuver toward the door, and on calling to him not to go he halted, turned toward the center of the room and stood watching the strangely assorted group of men.

Nolan next addressed Dupuy, who expressed his thanks at the granting of his request for an interview.

Judge Bartelmy, always quick to notice every detail or phase of what was transpiring in his immediate presence, saw that Brand was ill at ease. He called to him cheerily:

"My daughter and I were just speaking of you, Wheeler. The reformer calls a treacherous sea."

"The port is in sight, Judge Bartelmy," was the calm answer.

Bartelmy would have made a success of the stage. In fact, he had been acting a part most of his life and proved the truth of Richard Mansfield's aphorism that "the best actors are never seen on the stage."

At Wheeler Brand's significant reply, which smote as obviously on the ears of the judge as it did on those of Dupuy, the jurist gave an inward shiver quite imperceptible to the eye and replied in the most jovial of manners:

"So? So? That's good. That's worth while. Stick to the helm, my boy," he laughed.

"Brand ain't at sea, Judge," put in Nolan good naturedly. "He's in the clouds. The air up there makes your nose bleed; but, by the Eternal, you see all that's going on down here."

There was much "going on down here" that Bartelmy by all means preferred to have remain unseen, yet he managed to reply, with an attempt at sincerity:

"More power to you, Wheeler! More power to you!"

Nolan stepped toward the jurist.

"You're a generous foe, Judge Bartelmy," he said warmly, deceived by the smooth tactics of the judge.

"Foe? That's hardly the word," responded Bartelmy, and with deference: "Wheeler and I merely energize differently. He is dynamic; I am static, and that is because he is young and I am old."

Attention Sick Women

If you had positive proof that a certain remedy for female ills had made many remarkable cures, would you not feel like trying it?

If during the last thirty years we have not succeeded in convincing every fair-minded woman that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured thousands and thousands of women of the ills peculiar to their sex, then we long for an opportunity to do so by direct correspondence. Meanwhile read the following letters which we guarantee to be genuine and truthful.

Hudson, Ohio.—"I suffered for a long time from a weakness, inflammation, dreadful pains each month and suppression. I had been doctoring and receiving only temporary relief, when a friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so, and wrote to you for advice. I have faithfully followed your directions and now, after taking only five bottles of the Vegetable Compound, I have every reason to believe I am a well woman. I give you full permission to use my testimonial."

—Mrs. Lena Carmocino, Hudson, Ohio. R. F. D. No. 7.

St. Regis Falls, N. Y.—"Two years ago I was so bad that I had to take to my bed every month, and it would last from two to three weeks. I wrote to you for advice and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in dry form. I am happy to say that I am cured, thanks to your medicine and good advice. You may use my letter for the good of others."

—Mrs. J. H. Breyer, St. Regis Falls, N. Y.

There is absolutely no doubt about the ability of this grand old remedy, made from the roots and herbs of our fields, to cure female diseases. We possess volume of proof of this fact, enough to convince the most skeptic.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.
